

BY-LAWS
OF
EDGEWOOD COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.
(A Non-Stock Corporation)

ARTICLE 1

General Provisions

SECTION 1. Adoption of By-Laws. These By-Laws are adopted in conjunction with Declarations of Covenants, Conditions, Restrictions and Easements, dated 25 July 1994 and recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County in Liber L.W.S. No. 1622, Folio 705 etc., and with an Addendum to Declaration of Convenants, Conditions, Restrictions and Easements, dated 8 September 1994 and recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County in Liber L.W.S. No. 1633, Folio 945 etc., and any amendments subsequent thereto (hereinafter collectively referred to as “the Covenants”) and are intended to supplement and complement said Covenants. In any case where these By-Laws conflict with the said Covenants the provisions of the Covenants shall govern. These By-Laws and the Covenants are intended to govern the administration of a homeowners association in a development known as “Edgewood”, situate lying and being near MD Route #26 (Liberty Road) in the Fifth (5th) Election District of Carroll County, Maryland. These By-Laws shall be effective upon their adoption by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. The Council. Edgewood Community Association, Inc. (hereinafter “the Corporation”), has been incorporated as a Maryland non-stock corporation, and has been organized to provide for the administration of a homeowners association in the development known as “Edgewood”. The mailing address of the principle office of the Corporation is 6345 Executive Boulevard, Rockville, Maryland 20852.

The Corporation shall govern the affairs of the homeowners association and undertake and perform all acts and duties incident thereto in accordance with the provisions of the Covenants, these By-Laws, and any applicable laws of the State of Maryland.

SECTION 3. Application of By-Laws. These By-Laws shall be applicable to any member as defined in the Covenants.

SECTION 4. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the calendar year or other fiscal year as may from time to time be established by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 5. Roster of Members. For purposes of governing the affairs of the Corporation, the Corporation shall maintain a current roster of the names and addresses of members. Each member shall furnish the Corporation with his or her name and current mailing address. No member may vote at meetings of the Corporation until such information is furnished.

ARTICLE II

The Corporation

SECTION 1. Composition. The Corporation shall be comprised of the membership as defined in the Covenants.

SECTION 2. Voting. The membership shall be entitled to vote as provided in the Covenants. At all meetings of the Corporation, the proxies and ballots shall be received and counted by the Secretary of the meeting and all questions touching the qualifications of voters and the validity of proxies and the acceptance or rejection of votes shall be decided by the presiding officer of the meeting. Unless demanded or ordered by a majority of owners present, no vote need be by ballot, and voting need not be conducted by inspectors.

SECTION 3. Votes. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Corporation, duly called and which a quorum is present, shall be sufficient to take or authorize action upon any matter which may properly come before the meeting, unless more than a majority of votes cast is required by statute, by the Covenants, or by these By-Laws.

ARTICLE III

The Corporation

SECTION 1. Administration. The Corporation shall have the responsibility of governing the affairs of the homeowners association for the development known as “Edgewood”. Except as to those matters which the law specifically requires shall be performed by a vote of the members, the management of the Corporation shall be directed and administrated by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the Corporation shall be held on a day duly designated by the Board of Directors during the thirty (30) day period immediately succeeding March 1 of each year, for the purpose of electing directors to succeed those whose terms shall have expired as of the date of such annual meeting, adopting an annual budget, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Corporation may be called at any time for any purpose or purposes by the President, by a Vice-President, or by a majority of the Board of Directors, and shall be called forthwith by the President, by a Vice-President, the Secretary or any Director of the Corporation upon the request in writing of a majority of the members listed on the current roster and who are entitled to vote at such meeting. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings of the Corporation shall be confined to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice of the meeting.

SECTION 4. Place of Holding Meetings. All meetings of the Corporation shall be held at the principle office of the Corporation or elsewhere in the State of Maryland as designated by the Board of Directors. Written notice of each meeting of the Corporation shall be mailed, postage prepaid, by the Secretary to each member of record entitled to vote thereat at his or her mailing address, as it appears on the roster of members of the Corporation, at least fifteen (15) days before the meeting. Each such notice shall state the place, day and hour at which the meeting is to be held and, in the case of any special meeting, shall state briefly the purpose or purposes thereof.

SECTION 5. Quorum. At any meeting of the Corporation the presence in person or by proxy of members entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast thereat shall constitute a quorum; but this section shall not affect any requirement under statute or under the Covenants for the vote necessary for the adoption of any measure. In the absence of a quorum the members present in person or by proxy, by majority vote and without notice other than by announcement, may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall attend. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

SECTION 7. Conduct of Meetings. Meetings of the Corporation shall be presided over by the President of the Corporation or, if he or she is not present, by a Vice-President, or , if none of said officers is present, by a chairman to be elected at the meeting. The Secretary of the Corporation, or if he or she is not present, any Assistant Secretary shall act as secretary of such meetings, in the absence of the Secretary and any Assistant Secretary, the presiding officer may appoint a person to act as secretary of the meeting.

SECTION 8. Voting. At all meetings of the Corporation every member entitled to vote thereat may vote either in person or by proxy appointed by an instrument in writing subscribed by such member or his duly authorized attorney, bearing a date not more than one hundred eighty (180) day prior to said meeting (unless said instrument is granted to a mortgagee or lessee of the member). Such proxy shall be dated, but need not be sealed, witnessed or acknowledged. All elections shall be had and all questions shall be decided by a majority vote of the members at a duly constituted meeting, except as otherwise provided by law, by the Covenants, or by these By-Laws.

If the Chairman of the meeting shall so determine, a vote by ballot may be taken upon election or matter, and the vote shall be so taken upon the request of members with ten percent (10%) of the votes entitled to vote for such election or matter. In either of such events, the proxies and ballots shall be received and be taken in charge and all questions touching the qualification of voters and the validity of proxies and the acceptance or rejection of votes, shall be decided by the tellers. Such tellers shall be appointed by the chairman of said meeting.

ARTICLE IV
